MANY CHANGES IN DIPLOMATIC POSTS

President Realigns Many Of

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—President Roosevelt today sharply realigned the American diplomatic corps in the trouble zones in a shakeup topped by the appointment of John G. Winant, New Hampshire Republican, as ambassador to Great Britain.

Winant will succeed Joseph P. Kennedy, who recently resigned.

Highlight of the shakeup was an order for Nelson P. Johnson of Oklahoma, now ambassador to China, and Clarence E. Gauss of Connecticut, now minister to Australia, to swap their posts.

Given Quiet Post

The White House, in sending the new diplomatic nominations to the Senate explained carefully that although Johnson technically stepped down from his ambassadorial rank in China to become minister to Australia, actually he was being rewarded with a quiet post after years of extremely valuable and difficult service in turbulent China.

Still a third innovation came when President Roosevelt designated Anthony J. Drexel Biddle of Pennsylvania, now ambassador to Poland, to serve concurrently without additional pay, as the American envoy to the governments of Belgium, Norway, and the Netherlands in exile in London.

Changes In South America

Recognizing the ever-growing need for strongest relationship with South American countries, the President elevated the American legation in Montevideo to embassy and he nominated William Dawson of Minnesota, now ambassador to Panama, to become first ambassador to Uruguay. Edwin C. Wilson of Florida.

PA NEW OBSERVES

Mrs. Charles E. Patterson, Chestnut street, has just received a New Year's greeting card from George Pirikala, former New Castle boy now living in Finland. The card was mailed in Helsinki, and although the name of the city was plainly visible on the postmark the date of mailing could not be made out. Pirikala is serving as a member of the embassy staff in Finland.

City Employees are continuing their battle to free the downtown streets and alleys from the heavy coating of ice that developed during the recent heavy snows. The street scraper is being effectively used in cutting ice from the streets and alleys. With the thaw of the day it is indicated that most of the streets should be well cleared of ice by nightfall. Probably ready for another heavy snowfall to require the job to be done all over again. The barometer said "stormy" at noon.

Mere Loan To Great Britain Is Voted Down

BULLETIN

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Administration forces won the first major test of the lease-lend bill today when the House rejected a substitute measure which would have merely provided for $2,000,000,000 in loans or gifts to nations battling the Axis powers.

Sponsored by Rep. Mundt of South Dakota, a Republican member of the house foreign affairs committee, the substitute would have stripped the proposed law of the vast grants of presidential power provided in the administration's bill.

Mundt, in pleading for adoption of his proposal, declared that the administration's bill "makes the president the director-general of the war." His own bill, he said, would give the president no such powers and would not carry the country a single step "nearer war."

Petain Makes Answer To Latest Demands Of Nazi Government

BULLETIN

(International News Service)
VICHY, France, Feb. 6.—French Navy Minister Admiral Jean Darlan conferred at length with Premier Marshal Henri Philippe Petain today and then departed for Paris to relay to Germany the aged marshal's reply to the latest Nazi demands.

Laval wants "rump" regime
Laval himself, it was understood, wishes to divorce himself entirely from the Vichy regime and set up a "rump" government in Paris, where he would enjoy unrestricted power in dealing with the German military occupants of the French capital.

Laval's dislike of the Vichy set-up is said to be based upon article VII of the Vichy constitution, which LONDON, Feb. 6.—German raiders bombed southeast England and the London area during the night in retaliation for savage British attacks from Calais to Boulogne, but the air ministry announced today that the Nazis had inflicted relatively slight damage.

"During the early part of the night," said an official communique, "bombs were dropped on east and southeast England and the London area."

"The raids were on a small scale and damage was not heavy. There were few casualties."

President Approves Program For WPA Grant In Construction Of Gymnasium

EXPECT WORK TO BE STARTED SOON

Approval of a WPA project involving an expenditure of $15,182 for labor in the construction of a $35,000 combination gymnasium and auditorium, adjoining the Wampum high school building, practically removes the last obstacle in the way of construction of the building, and work is expected to start reasonably soon, W. G. Eckles Co., the architects for the building, stated today.

This was disclosed following receipt of word by W. H. Grinnen, secretary of the Wampum school board, from Congressman L. E. Graham, that presidential approval of the project had been given on January 31.

Approval by the state WPA is expected to be but a matter of form, as the state board is fully acquainted with the project, and plans for the building have been prepared by

House Prepares For Vote Test On 'Lend-Lease' Bill

Crucial Amendments To

PRESIDENT FACES TEST OF STRENGTH

Administration Leaders Declare House Will Pass Aid
Bill By Big Margin

By WILLIAM S. NEAL

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—President Roosevelt faced his first great test of strength in the new 77th Congress today as the House prepared to vote on crucial amendments to the "lease-lend" British aid bill.

Leaders of both sides in the struggle girded themselves for a bitter, perhaps uproarious battle, over amendments designed to strip the bill of vast powers for the President and to tighten the hold of Congress on the nation's purse strings.

Despite confidence of administration leaders, they were still considering the making of further concessions, in the form of modifying amendments in the hope of building up congressional unity.

The House readied itself for the battle after three days of debate, during which the "all out" British aid measure was praised as a safeguard of democracy and assailed as a bill leading America directly into the maelstrom of war on two continents.

Seeks Speedy Action

On the one hand, Rep. Bloom (D.), N. Y., chairman of the foreign affairs committee, directed the strategy of administration forces seeking to pass the bill by Friday night.

Standing against him is Rep. Fish (R.), N. Y., foe of war, leading the opposition seeking to radically modify the bill.

Proposed committee amendments include a time limit until June 30, 1943, prohibition of navy convoys, requirement of the President to con-

BATTLE DEVELOPS ON BELGIAN GOLD

Exiled Belgian Government
Seeks To Recover $260,- 000,000 Entrusted To France

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—The exiled Belgian government today held a writ of attachment for $260,000,000 against assets of the Bank of France in this country to cover the loss of Belgian gold which it charged the French have yielded to the Nazi overlords of conquered Belgium.

The $260,000,000 in Belgium gold, about a third of the gold reserves of Belgium's national bank, was turned over to the French for safekeeping when the Germans invaded Belgium, it was charged here.

The French, overriding Belgian opposition, sent the gold to Dakar, in French West Africa. It was contended, and from there it is now being flown back to Belgium upon requisition of Gen. Baron Alexander Von Falkenhausen, the German military commander.

The writ of attachment was obtained in New York supreme court by Georges Theunis, ambassador of the exiled Belgian government now functioning in London. The proceedings again revived reports that the real objective of the recent abortive attempt by the "Free French" forces of Gen. Charles De Gaulle to occupy Dakar was this gold cache.

Col. Lindbergh Again Testifies In Opposition To 'Lend-Lease' Program

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Declaring that a British victory in Europe's war "is extremely doubtful," Col. Charles A. Lindbergh today warned Congress that "regardless of how much assistance we send to England it will not be possible for American and British aviation to equal the strength of the German air force."

Before Senate Committee

Colonel Lindbergh, testifying before the Senate foreign relations committee in opposition to President Roosevelt's lease-lend bill to aid Britain, stated that England was not "in a position to win the war" because the Nazis have forged "almost a semi-circle" around the British Isles. He cautioned against any attempt to "stretch the American neck clear across the Atlantic."

He stated that this country should, instead, concentrate on building up national defense, which, he said, would be depleted by aid to England. He pointed out that "we have sent most" of the planes produced by the country.

CAIRO, Feb. 6.—British imperial troops today were reported bearing down on Barce, Libyan railroad only 60 miles from Bengazi, while another army closed in on Ker, 50 miles from the Eritrean capital of Asmara.

On three other fronts rapid British progress, almost without opposition, was recorded.

"Our advance towards Bengazi is progressing satisfactorily," the British middle eastern command announced.

Italians Retreat

Australian mechanized troops were dashing after the retreating Italians west of Cyrene at the rate of 20 or more miles a day, and it appeared that no attempt would be made to hold the railroad at Barce.

In Eritrea, the communique went on, "our forces now are closing in on strongly-held Italian positions about Keren."

Further south, the Italian forces which had withdrawn eastward from Barentu are being pursued vigorously in the Toile area (55 miles south of Agordat).

About 1500 Prisoners

"So far, about 1500 prisoners, most of them Italian (the others are native Eritreans) have been taken in that sector, together with further captures of military material of all descriptions."

In various operations from our bases in the Sudan, our casualties have been light.

"In Abyssinia good progress is being made in our advance along the Gondar road (north of Lake Tana) in spite of numerous mine fields set by the enemy to cover its retreat."

Penetrate Deeper

"In Italian Somaliland our penetration in all sectors across the enemy frontier is daily becoming deeper. So far the enemy has sustained casualties which are disproportionate to ours, British imperial casualties being negligible."

From the Libyan front came dispatches indicating the Italians do not intend making a stand anywhere east of Bengazi, the last remaining major Fascist base in Libya.

Reveal Demonstrations Against U. S.

Anti-American Blasts In Italy

Press Campaign Against U. S. Is Increasing In Intensity

YOUTHS PARADING THROUGH STREETS

BULLETIN
(International News Service)
ROME, Feb. 6.—Demonstrations against the United States have occurred at Turin, it was revealed on reliable authority today as Italy's anti-American press campaign increased in intensity.
On Jan. 29, according to this information, Turin police prevented a crowd of students and Italian troops from reaching the American consulate, which since then has been heavily guarded.
Authorities at Milan also were reported to have discovered and frustrated plans for a similar anti-American demonstration there.
This morning in Rome hundreds of youths carrying flags and shouting patriotic slogans paraded the streets.

"Have Faith!"
Posters put up in various parts of the capital were covered with pencil scrawls reading:
"Italians: Keep your mouths shut! No Muzzling! Have faith!"

The renewed press campaign was highlighted by the newspaper Gazzetta del Popolo, which reprinted yesterday's attack by the newspaper Piccolo on Jews in the United States. This article accused the Jews of responsibility for anti-Italian sentiment in America.

Another paper, Il Messaggero, in a front page article expanded on the thesis published by Virginio Gayda, press spokesman for Premier Mussolini, that the United States is more dictatorial than any European nation.

The dictatorial regime began with Roosevelt's entrance into the White House, Messaggero said. "No country ever had a greater or more absolute dictator."

Reports from the war zone said that Greek artillery on the coastal and central fronts has been brought up to newly captured positions and already is harassing the Italians.

"Hand-to-hand fighting took place in one village," the communiqué said. "Greek troops finally chased out the Italians in one of the most brilliantly fought actions since the war began."

PETAINE ANSWERS LATEST DEMANDS OF NAZI GERMANY

places distinct personal responsibilities on the shoulders of each individual minister.

(The official German news agency DNB reported from Vichy that yesterday's French council meeting concerned an exchange of opinions rather than a final decision regarding Darlan's negotiations at Paris.)

Wants To Stay In Paris

Granted autonomous powers and headquarters in Paris, Laval believes he would be in a better position to further the full Franco-German collaboration he favors.

Well-informed Vichy circles said that Darlan would return from Paris tomorrow night or Saturday, enabling Petain to announce outcome of the long crisis in a radio address to the nation over the weekend.

Informed circles in Vichy attached special importance to Darlan's conference with Petain this morning. They declared it may have important repercussions on relations between France and the United States as well as on the subject of Franco-German "collaboration."

Among the decisions regarding which Darlan will inform Abetz is one relating to the future status of Laval, who is expected to assume an important role in future French governmental affairs.

There were rumors that Darlan and French war minister Charles Huntziger have been pressing Petain to accept Laval in the government as well as other conditions put forward by Abetz on behalf of the German government.

duced in the U. S. abroad while "our own air forces are in deplorable condition for lack of modern equipment."

The famous flyer, who also appeared before the House foreign affairs committee two weeks ago, again pleaded for "negotiated peace in Europe."

Some Highlights

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Following are the highlights of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh's statement before the Senate foreign relations committee today:

"Personally, I do not believe that England is in a position to win the war."

"An English victory, if it were possible at all, would necessitate years of war and an invasion of the continent of Europe. I believe this would create prostration, famine and disease in Europe—and probably in America."

"At the present moment, Germany controls air bases on the continent of Europe which extend almost in a semi-circle around the British Isles."

"Regardless of how much assistance we send, it will not be possible for American and British aviation concentrated in the small area of the British Isles, to equal the strength of German aviation."

"If we follow the policy represented by this bill, we will find ourselves with England as a bridgehead in Europe and, one might say, with the American neck stretched clear across the Atlantic ocean."

"I have never taken the stand that it makes no difference to us who wins this war in Europe. It does make a difference to us, a great difference. When I am asked which side I would like to have win, it would be very easy for me to say 'the English!'"

HOUSE PREPARES FOR VOTE TEST ON LEASE-LEND BILL

sult army and navy chiefs before transferring any defense articles, and to report to Congress on all transactions every 90 days.

Only a pace behind the scenes is Speaker Rayburn, confidant of Mr. Roosevelt, who helped frame the "lease-lend" bill and who is the supreme director of administration forces.

Predicts 100 Vote Margin

Rayburn confidently predicted final passage of the measure by 100 votes. Foes of the measure, including Minority Leader Martin, generally conceded the measure will pass.

A rising tide of sentiment for further limitations on the measure, both to put a "ceiling" on expenditures and to make it plain that no power is given the President to involve the nation in war, threatened to force concessions even beyond administration desires.

With Fish declaring that a canvass of the House indicates strong probability of many important amendments being adopted, Bloom said that "we are willing to consider all reasonable amendments."

A group of southern Democrats led a fight for an amendment which would deny Mr. Roosevelt power to send merchant ships into the war zones, where they said the boats might be sunk and thus perhaps bring about war.

Many northern Democrats, stung by assertion of foes that the "key" limit under the bill, urged a "ceiling" of $3,000,000,000 to $5,000,000,000 on appropriations.

Rep. Coffey (D., Neb.), a leader of a Democratic opposition bloc conceded defeat, declaring that "I don't believe more than 20 to 25 Democrats will vote against the bill in its entirety, although there are many on the fence."

More Modifications

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Democratic members of the House foreign affairs committee today voted to accept two more modifying amendments to the lease lend bill as the house readied itself for a free-for-all floor battle over revision of the measure.

The amendments provide for a congressional declaration against carrying goods to England in American ships, and a time limit on the power of the president to obligate the government on contracts for which congress has not appropriated money.

The committee rejected the so-called compromise proposal of Rep. Wadsworth (R) N. Y., to put a $4,000,000,000 "ceiling" on the measure.

The chairman Bloom (D) N. Y., of the committee announced that another session of the committee will be held tomorrow morning to consider further amendments, if necessary.

Get Roosevelt Approval

The new concessions, it was reported, were made on approval of President Roosevelt in an effort to mollify opposition to many provisions of the "all out" British aid measure.

The action of the Democrats was immediately hailed by Republicans as a further dent in the administration's strength. Minority leader Martin predicted "they will have to give in on a couple of more before night falls."

Martin made the statement as he left a conference with members of the Republican steering committee at which it was agreed that the minority would sponsor "important" modifying amendments designed to curtail the powers proposed for President Roosevelt and to minimize the chances of American involvement in the war.

The nomination of Winant, former governor of New Hampshire and first chairman of the social security board, as ambassador to the Court of St. James, had been fairly well forecast. He is now director of the international labor office.

described as the most damaging daylight assaults yet inflicted upon the German bases and invasion ports along the coast.

Above Calais, Boulogne and Bordeaux the fires sent up pillars of flame and smoke as high as 9,000 feet after the British attacks, which precipitated furious aerial combats over the English channel.

The British announced seven German planes had been shot down and that five British craft were missing.

The R. A. F. attacks up and down the French coast were carried out during the daylight hours of yesterday. It was learned that adverse weather conditions halted British bombing activities over the continent during the night.

MILLING COMPANY PLANT PURCHASED

mouth, O., and Wellburg. The local plant will be known as the Castle Milling & Paper company.

Continue Milling

The milling company here will be continued with Lew Howard, president manager, continuing in that post. There will be no change in the personnel but it is anticipated the personnel will be expanded.

Flour, feed and general farm necessities will be milled and sold, and from the annex will be handled paper, paper products and roofing supplies.

The Cox company has always specialized in water proofed papers, made from the formula of the late Ralph K. Cox, father of the present president and general manager. The company is one of the largest distributors of water proofed papers in the country being used extensively in export shipments that must be kept from the effects of sea water and air.

The Cox companies are now operating in 22 states of the Union and hope to make the local plant a center of distribution for western Pennsylvania and eastern Ohio.

Improvements will be started within a short time upon the building on Valentine street, using local men and materials.

which can conceive of our being driven from Newfoundland. Even if we were, the enemy would find no supplies in that barren land. Can anyone dream of an enemy forcing its way through this country in face of one or two million trained American and Canadian troops?

Turning to a possibility of invasion by way of the Pacific, McCormick pointed to the American bases in the Aleutian Islands, Pearl Harbor and Samoa, emphasizing the great distances they are from Japan.

"If we need any other island bases, to project our coast, we have the means of taking them and the knowledge that we will be welcomed by their inhabitants," McCormick declared.

"Behind these outposts we have the Panama Canal, so we can move our own fleet from ocean to ocean, which makes a one-ocean navy strategically equal to two navies denied the Panama Canal."

PRESIDENT SEEKING WPA APPROPRIATION

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—President Roosevelt's request for an emergency $375,000,000 WPA appropriation so that WPA can be continued at an almost normal level until June 30, was approved by the house relief appropriations sub-committee today.

Since this sub-committee in the past has led the fight to slash relief costs, its action in approving the request makes final congressional approval virtually certain.

Wimodausis Annual Valentine Luncheon Held At Cathedral

A garden of hearts spun with strong threads of friendliness, kindness and courage, was the theme of Wimodausis club members who assembled in the main dining room of the Cathedral Wednesday afternoon for their annual Valentine luncheon party. The candlelight setting brought to mind old lavender and lace and flirtations over a garden wall as they joined for this most colorful and beautifully planned spring event.

At 1 o'clock a delicious chicken menu was served by members of the White Shrine, with Mrs. Edna Crain heading the committee. The invocation was offered by Mrs. Carl S. Hart, and following, the president, Mrs. George Bollinger who presided, extended a cordial welcome to the assemblage while Mrs. M. M. Ingham, general chairman, presented floral corsages to the past presidents. This distinguished group seated at the main table, included Mrs. Frank Woods, Mrs. Benjamin Beisel, Mrs. Frank Fischer, Mrs. W. A. Taylor, Mrs. S. M. Matheny, Mrs. Earl Thompson, the latter now of Sharon; Mrs. Roy Long, Mrs. H. L. Hagst and Mrs. Dallas Hildebrand. In addition, Mrs. Bollinger gave to committee members, who were seated at tables arranged in a huge "W," special gifts including Mrs. M. L. Maxwell, Jean Glenn of The News and others, individual roses in decorative containers. Novel Valentine favors and hankie corsages marked places for nearly 250 women.

A telegram of regret received from Mrs. Mollie Crowl of Oil City, past president, who was unable to attend, was read by Mrs. Bollinger. The clever feature planned by Mrs. J. J. Madigan was the presentation of an electric roaster to Mrs. Bollinger in behalf of the club. While Mrs. Elizabeth Fleming, who contributed solo-vox music throughout the afternoon, gave a selected number, commanding echoes were sounded by trumpeter James Finnissy, thus signalling Miss Betty Reed to page Mrs. Bollinger. Two tiny tots, Marmee Houk and Dick Bradford in cupid's attire, wended their way to the president's table, and escorted Mrs. Bollinger to the front, where she received the gift. She spoke words of appreciation to the club, and praise for those who co-operated in making the party so successful.

Games in the decorated East Lodge room filled in the remaining hours. A prize for each table was awarded at the close of play.

Mrs. Bollinger had on her committee aiding Mrs. M. M. Ingham, general chairman, the following: Invitation, checking and music—Mrs. Russell Melvin, Mrs. Clifford James, Mrs. Charles Streib, Mrs. Gayle Blim, Mrs. J. W. McCreary and Mrs. H. N. Drio; dining room—Mrs. Homer Gardner, Mrs. Willard Hood, Mrs. R. M. Warnock, Mrs. E. C. Buzard, Mrs. Kenneth Brown and Mrs. Frank Wilkinson; menu—Mrs. C. A. Donges and Mrs. C. H. Millholland; gift—Mrs. John Madigan, Mrs. S. G. Ligo and Mrs. John Haven; contract bridge—Mrs. G. R. Weber, Mrs. Howard Erwin, auction bridge—Mrs. W. E. Perver, Mrs. Harold Harlan and Mrs. John Ingham; five hundred—Mrs. John Pattison and Mrs. J. Emerson Davis; bingo—Mrs. Walter Gilmore, Mrs. H. L. McFeaters, Mrs. Harry Pearce and Mrs. W. A. Jenkins; Chinese checkers—Mrs. Charles Strittmatter and Mrs. Frank Palmer; decorations—Mrs. P. H. Bridenbaugh, Mrs. Richard Gilmore, Mrs. L. A. Wygant, Mrs. Wilbert Chapman and Mrs. Theodore Lewis.

During the reminiscing period, Mrs. Benjamin Beisel told a touching story of the wives, mothers, daughters and sisters of Masons who formed the Wimodausis years ago, and she related her joy in seeing the club as it is today—one of New Castle's largest and most progressive organizations, ready to embark on another year—1941—going forward in thought and deed, enfolded in friendliness, courage and kindness, the stepping stones for success.

TRADE SITUATION AND WAR EFFECT

EFFECTS of war on America's foreign trade channels are marked. Despite the virtual elimination of shipments to and from Nazi-controlled Europe, last year's exports of $4,021,500,000 were the highest since 1929. That would be something to be jubilant about if it were the result of normal industrial activity instead of sales of war materials to Great Britain, aside from some gain in South American trade.

Imports gained in far less degree than exports, the total of $2,625,400,000 having been less than the 1937 total. But for this country's heavy accumulation of strategic materials, such as rubber, silk, tin and antimony, in a war defense program, imports probably would have been about the same as 1939's total of $2,318,000,000. The result for the year is an increase of exports over imports of $1,396,100,000, not equalled since 1924.

On the agriculture side only corn and vegetable exports increased last year and in the final months, the Commerce Department reveals, exports of farm crops fell to the lowest point since 1869. But, according to the latest estimates of the Agriculture Department, cash farm income for 1940 was nearly $9,100,000,000, or $500,000,000 above 1939.

And while cotton, wheat and tobacco of the principal crops were heavy sufferers from diminished exports, only tobacco of the three returned a lower income.

NOT EXACTLY A NEUTRAL BELT

Indications of a disposition of the United States and Central and South American governments to just let the whole matter of the 300-mile Neutrality Belt slump into a state of forgetfulness suggests a realistic acceptance of very obvious facts.

It would be a good trick, as the saying goes, if the Americas could keep all forms of belligerent activity so far from our shores. But, as is pointed out now in Washington, though as yet unofficially, the Nazis and Britain have done their tangling far inside the Belt when they could get at each other.

Somebody would have to get tough to make the thing work, and in the nature of things the somebody would be the United States Navy, says the Philadelphia Inquirer. With our country struggling to achieve "all out" aid for Britain short of war it would be paradoxical and farcical on the other hand to attempt to enforce the Pan-American declaration against British ships.

CONDITIONS AS EXPECTED

The plight of the Belgians, as revealed by Herbert Hoover, chairman of the National Committee on Food for the Five Small Democracies, is shocking to all friends of this afflicted land, which in a quarter of a century has endured so much of grief and suffering.

The story is lacking, however, in the element of surprise. When Mr. Hoover states that the Belgians are living on a food ration little more than one-third that of Germans, he reveals only what was to be expected.

Mr. Hoover gives an additionally poignant touch to the picture when he says that "major food supplies to maintain any Belgian ration will be non-existent in a month." These facts give an even more somber hue to a dark picture but they do not dispel the conviction that the Nazis, who permit their conquered subjects to starve, would not seize and utilize for their own purposes any food sent to these stricken people from neutral sources.

The desperate straits of Belgium are heart-breaking, particularly because the brutal overlordship which Hitler exercises precludes the possibility of relief.

FIFTH COLUMNISTS IN TRADE

There can be no reasonable quarrel with the State Department's dictum that American business houses should give a thorough house-cleaning to their Latin American branches. This involved a thorough scrutiny of personnel, and the elimination of nationals of or sympathizers with the totalitarian powers.

Also there is a determined effort at Washington to get American corporations to desist from shipping from Latin America to the axis powers materials originating in the United States, of which direct shipment would be banned by Presidential embargo.

So far as aid to Hitler and Mussolini is concerned, "leakage" from South and Central America is just as deadly to British defense as the re-shipment by Russia to Germany of goods obtained in America. Research studies in Latin America by Nelson Rockefeller's Commercial and Cultural Relations Office have furnished to the State Department evidences of subversive activities on the part of employees of American firms in many of the lands to the south.

The application of diplomatic pressure on these concerns is not at all in the nature of a witch hunt. Rather it is a necessary step in the direction of hemisphere solidarity. Where it is effective it will be just another evidence of American good faith.

So far as has been learned, Vice President Wallace as presiding officer of the Senate hasn't succeeded in getting Senators to plow under every third comment.

John Garner expressed the hope that he might now be able to go way back and sit down, and how a lot of the statesmen and politicians around Washington must envy him.

While we don't pretend to know the real inside of the international situation, it is worth recalling that many of the fellows who now say that Lindbergh is all wrong, said the same thing about him when he gave us the real dope on the world situation a few years ago.

This international trade complex is certainly playing hob with the American digestion. The other day a Chicago store advertised 125 different kinds of cheese. In the good old "horse and buggy" days all we knew about were plain yellow cheese and schmierkase.

Remember the old story about the fellow who told his friends: "Well, I am going to town today to get drunk, and gosh how I dread it!" Some of our ultra modern experts on foreign affairs now seem to be in the same predicament with regards to the European war.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph.D.

RESPECT A FATHER IN HOME LIFE

Often in this column I have tried to show how prone we parents and teachers are to make fun of children and the harm that results from doing so. To such sins against our children I have devoted many pages in my books.

Recently I was challenged by a father who said, "Is it not also true that some children ridicule their parents?" He was a Boy Scout commissioner.

You are quite correct," I answered. "I must devote a column to it. Hereafter, when I discuss this problem as I did tonight, I shall try also to balance it in the manner you have suggested."

Without too much preaching, we parents and teachers should impress on our children that when they make fun of their parents to their face or behind their back they are being very rude and uncivil and that something destructive happens to themselves inside. When anyone laughs at another person in ridicule, he is trying to tell himself and other, probably without knowing it, how much smarter he thinks he is than the one laughed at.

An Unhealthy Attitude

When a child imagines he knows much more than his parents, he has an unhealthy, unwholesome, destructive attitude. He is acting stupidly. He is assuming, falsely, that things learned at school or gained from books are equal or superior in value to things gained by the rich experience of living. Any child who imagines his parents ignorant, benighted, and deserving of his ridicule, just because these parents have not acquired certain items of convention or mastered certain skills of knowledge which this child has acquired at school, has a tragic state of mind. He has cut himself off from the richest possible source of learning, that of human experience which comes from other persons who have lived longer.

There must be something sadly lacking in our teaching at school and college which results in the tendency of so many youths to consider lightly, disregard, or even make fun of the experience and wisdom of their parents and grandparents.

Teachers, college professors, club leaders and others who supervise "character building" agencies should believe find ways and means of cultivating a more wholesome attitude in children toward their parents. It was heartening to me to hear this matter considered in a discussion of home school relations by leaders in guidance at the recent annual convention. Yes, we need to give some thought to the commandment: "Honor thy father and thy mother."

Solving Parent Problems

Q. At what age is the child most likely to be stubborn?
A. As a rule, from 2 to 4.

The World and the Mud Puddles

IT IS DOUBLE BARRELED

The United States is now embarked on a policy of all-out financial and material aid to insure Britain's victory over Germany. The conviction which supports this policy, a conviction shared by the majority of Americans, is that such a victory can best assure this nation's lasting peace.

Whether this conviction proves correct or not, it is the policy from which the nation must take its bearings. The policy of an all-out help to Britain not only enables this country to affect directly the outcome of the war in Europe, but it gives this nation a right to demand now that America's voice be heard and heeded in any peace settlement following the war.

America's policy of aid to Great Britain will have backfired if a victory for the English results in a post-war "peace settlement" so vengeful that it only makes another war inevitable in another generation or two. Events of the twentieth century have shown the United States does have a stake in a peaceful, prosperous, orderly world—whether it likes that fact or not. During the past twenty years, it has intensely disliked that fact and sought to avoid it. Our belated armament program is proof of our belated recognition that "foreign" wars affect America's security. So do the "peace" treaties which follow those wars.

If it is to America's interest to help Britain win the war, it is equally to America's interest to win the peace following that war—an even more difficult task. For the kind of peace terms which follow it will largely determine just how durable that peace will be—whether, in fact, it will prove simply an armed truce, the familiar vengeful, but futile, crushing of the vanquished by the victor, which will plant the seeds of another inevitable conflict again involving the United States to a greater or less extent. The United States cannot afford to help win the war and lose the peace. To do so would nullify her hope of achieving lasting peace through a triumph of British arms.

COURAGE

New Castle, Pa.
Feb. 2, 1941.

Editor,
Hints and Dints:

I feel in my heart that it isn't life that matters so much, but the courage you bring to it, that counts. To fight on, and do your duty in grief and poverty, is the test of a real man or woman. We all respect and admire true courage. So, the poor man, or woman who fights the battle of life bravely, though often tired and weary, helps us all to live better.

NO CHOICE

"That," said the patient, "is practically useless advice. Ever since I started making payments on your bill I find I have no money for fancy food or for prowling around at night."

"Fine, lady," said the policeman, beaming from ear to ear. "I'm certainly glad you told me that."

"Then can I go?" she asked.

"Not until you get this ticket," said the copper. "The sergeant told us today that we ought to get some representatives of the upper crust and you'll do fine for a starter."

"I want to give my young daughter a thorough education in the rules of etiquette so that she will have a proper foundation for a social career. Are there any schools or special courses giving such training?"—Pater Familias.

Answer: Almost all fashionable "finishing schools," so-called, offer such courses. But the foundations for such an education should be laid at home by parental example. Begin by showing her mother, in her child's presence, every courtesy that you wish her to expect from men—such as helping her on and off with her coat, pulling out her chair when she takes her place at or leaves the table, opening doors for her, speaking gently to her at all times. Similarly her mother should, by example, teach her the social graces necessary to the proper reception and entertainment of guests, the treatment of servants, social correspondence, every courtesy that you wish her to expect from men—such as helping her on and off with her coat, pulling out her chair when she takes her place at or leaves the table, opening doors for her, speaking gently to her at all times. after a cold then what

DOCTORS stress remaining in bed until the body temperature is normal. Sound advice.

You know how weak you feel after a cold. Colds play havoc in weakening the body. The story is well told in the blood picture. It is important to build back body strength right away to carry the load of work, worries, and loss of sleep. A weakened body may be more susceptible to relapse or long drawn out recovery.

So reason sensibly and take the choice of millions by immediately starting on a course of S.S. Tonic—taken three times a day immediately before meals.
In the absence of a focal infection or organic disease, you should note improvement in the way you feel and look within the first 10 days. The confidence of millions over many years is the best testimony of this product.

An experience with S.S.
Tonic will cause you to say to your friends, S.S. made me
"feel and look like myself again."

Under the law the county controller is required to prepare a budget each year and the county commissioners must adopt a budget and set your tax levy. Before the budget can be adopted it must be displayed for twenty days for inspection.

The 1941 budget has been made and is on display in the controller's office but as usual no taxpayers have dropped in to see where their money is going next year.

Just in case you may be interested in some of the salient features of it you will find herewith a few of those features.

Two budgets are prepared, one for the general fund and one for the institutional fund. As you know the tax levy will be set at three mills for the general fund and one for the institutional.

The estimated receipts for the general fund are $345,014.56. These are expected to be raised from a three mill tax upon an assessed valuation of $58,194,291, and a four mill personal property tax upon $16,000,000 worth of personal property. This total of personal property is estimated only and will likely be closer to $19,000,000. From other miscellaneous sources there will be some revenue and it is estimated the total miscellaneous will come to $111,295. From taxes of prior years it is estimated that $35,500 will be collected. Add to these figures $314,875.87 in the bank to start with and your total estimated receipts for the year come to $659,890.43.

Estimated expenditures show $405,657.84 for operation and maintenance, $38,215, for debt service and $65,200 for capital outlay. Tomorrow we'll show a break down of the institutional fund, what percentage of taxes were collected in 1940 and the tax rates you have been paying since 1900.

New Castle Schools Aid Defense Program

New Castle schools and the city's board of education are co-operating fully-day and night—in the National Defense Training program of the federal government.

Since July 1 the machine shop in the Vocational Industrial building, Lutton street, has been operating on a 24-hour basis. During July and August there were three daily shifts of eight hours each for "national defense training in machine operation." Since September 1 two daily shifts—from 4 to 8 p. m.—have been devoted to this purpose, while another shift in the daytime has been reserved for the senior high school classes in machine shop practice.

Night Classes Draw 500
Five hundred district men of college grade are enrolled in the seven distinct courses being offered nightly at the National Defense Engineering Training school in senior high school. That school opened January 20 under the direction of Pennsylvania State college.

The 500 are enrolled in one or more of these seven courses: Engineering drafting, production engineering, physical testing of materials, elementary tool design, physical metallurgy, pre-foremanship for production supervision, and metal-logical applications.

Under the direction of the New Castle schools two instructors are provided now for the National Youth Center for Girls.

In the near future six instructors will be provided for the NYA Center for Boys and other teachers for NYA enrollees not in either center. The cost of all of this work is borne by the federal government under various acts of congress for national defense.

The following teachers are in charge of the Defense Engineering classes: A. T. Eckles, 135 Mills way; William Riggs, 323 Edgewood avenue; C. P. McGill, 141 East Winter avenue; E. J. Risseuw, 229 Spring avenue, Ellwood City; W. F. Carenbauer, 204 Milton street; R. S. Miles, 233 Spring avenue, Ellwood City; William Lysz, 425 Galbreath avenue, W. R. Worthen, 309 Petan street, Ellwood City; W. S. Emley, 309 Edison avenue; E. A. Geddes, 438 Glen avenue, Ellwood City; J. F. Diffley, 1208 Highland avenue; E. V. Martin, 1099 Delaware avenue; A. F. Kricher, 223 Line avenue, Ellwood City; P. C. Cronin, 516 Spring avenue, Ellwood City, and D. E. Tomkins, 309 Boyles avenue.

Supervising the machine shop work is Earle M. Cass, vocational director of New Castle public schools. The supervisor of the Defense Engineering school is Roy C. Kirkpatrick, instructor in electricity in the New Castle Vocational school.

All of these projects are under the general direction of Dr. C. C. Green, superintendent of schools, who also co-operated with Pennsylvania State college in the organization of the Defense Engineering classes.

The Greater New Castle Association and Junior Chamber of Commerce have given "valuable assistance" in two of the activities, Superintendent Green said.

The Human Side Of The News

(By EDWIN C. HILL)
Copyright 1940 King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Winston Churchill refuses, in the House of Commons, to give official recognition to a demand for the restoration of the Elgin Marbles to Greece. But old England seems to have an uneasy conscience about these sculptures, done in the days of Pericles, taken by England in 1810.

People are writing letters to the newspapers, according to today's dispatches, and there is a group forming in Parliament which plans to press the issue. These sensitive and imaginative persons see in the restoration the possibility of a dramatic statement of a higher morality in war aims, and perhaps they catch the rhythm of Kipling's noble invocation of a "broken and a contrite heart."

They see, furthermore, the good theatre of this amende honorable toward their gallant little ally Greece, whose Pericles denounced tyrants when these Elgin Marbles were put in place in 438 B. C. England and Greece have more in common than they ever had before. We feel sure of one thing—if England should hire a good Broadway press agent to build good will around the world, the first thing he would do would be to put through this restoration, with impressive ceremonies, done with majestic pageantry which would extol the undying aspiration of the spirit of man, which the Parthenon more nobly exemplifies than any other edifice on this round globe.

There is always hope for a nation which can be scandalized, and perhaps little hope if there is nothing it is ashamed of. England was scandalized clear down to her shoe-buckles when Lord Elgin, envoy to Constantinople, lifted the Elgin Marbles from the Doric frieze of the Parthenon and brought them to England.

Young Lord Byron, poet and Graecophile, launched forked-lightning against the "plundering of this ancient temple." Famous classicists, archaeologists, teachers and writers deplored, denounced, execrated and pleaded, but the marbles remained in the British museum and there they are today.

Lord Elgin, Scottish peer and diplomat for fifty years, was the curious embodiment of contending forces in the continental Europe of his day. Educated at Harrow and Westminster, he studied international law in Paris, and then he studied military tactics in Germany, and became a general as well as a diplomat. Perhaps it was the general who took the marbles, and not the diplomat.

For several years he was coldly aloof from the storm raging around him, and then he issued a pamphlet called "Memorandum on the Subject of the Earl of Elgin's Pursuits in Greece." It was one of those haughty "it has been called to my attention" statements, and in no wise reassuring or convincing. In 1816, the government paid Greece $180,000 for the marbles.

It is just one hundred years now since his lordship passed to temple; more stately than even the Parthenon, and the propriety of that famous marble deal is still unfinished business, so far as the British public is concerned. In the golden age of Pericles, high peak of human creativity, it was none other than Phidias who set on the top of a high hill this superlatively beautiful Temple of Minerva. It was glowing with lavish color in the interstices between the columns, hung with golden shields, its columns cunningly devised in curvature to carry the spirit in a magnificent ascent to the stars; an edifice of "overwhelming splendor and beauty," as ancient writers have called it.

The sculpture of its breathtaking frieze showed the battle of gods and saints, of gods and Amazons, of Greeks against centaurs, the imperishable classic Greek antithesis of Man against Fate. Dominating the interior was the great gold and ivory statue of Athena.

The glory that was Greece "ebbed and sank and saddened." Wars, vandals, and erections marred the temple. In the fifth century it was converted into the Church of St. Sophia and an apse was erected at the eastern end. More wars, and in 1456 the Turks transformed it to a mosque. In 1687 an Italian named

Butler County School Is Burned

BUTLER, Pa., Feb. 6.—Fire, believed to have started from an overheated stove near the chimney, destroyed the North Washington high school building with an estimated loss of $3,000 Wednesday.

The flames were discovered by residents of the district and the inside of the frame building soon was a raging inferno.

Fire companies from North Washington, West Sunbury, Eau Claire and Petrolia battled the blaze for five hours before bringing it under control. Only the walls of the building were left standing. Firemen succeeded in saving several thousand dollars worth of books and equipment. More than 100 students attended the school.

Local Churches To Participate In Emergency Crusade

Methodists Will Attempt To Raise One Million Dollars
For War-Caused Appeals

The seven Methodist churches of New Castle will participate in the Methodist Emergency Million crusade in a nation-wide attempt to raise one million dollars to meet three war-caused appeals. The offering plates of the 43,194 Methodist congregations in the United States will be simultaneously passed on what has been named "Methodism's Day of Compassion," Sunday, March 2.

The Rev. W. V. McLean explains the three types of appeal that are consolidated in this Good Samaritan movement.

(1) $250,000 is to be allotted to the religious and social well-being of young men in army camps and navy yards. Methodist chaplains within these camps will be aided with literature and equipment as needed from the fund. Churches nearby will be helped to meet their enlarged responsibilities in ministering attractively to unusual numbers of young men during the critical hours of "leave." In some cases this fund will provide general Methodist share in creating interdenominational social and religious centers to sustain and build character.

(2) $250,000 will be devoted to assist the mother church in England in temporarily easing some of the frightful situations involved in 150 bombed churches. Also, in the South East of England there are villages so dangerously located that almost the entire congregations have evacuated, leaving quite unprovided for the pastors who are staying to minister to those who remain. Other urgent needs grow out of the necessity of rescuing certain British Methodist missionary personnel and projects which are in jeopardy.

(3) $500,000 will continue and supplement the Methodist overseas relief now in progress; feeding, clothing and sheltering non-combatant war victims.

Since war conditions make added demands on all regular missionary and philanthropic funds, both the national and local leaders of this campaign emphasize that this is an emergency offering and must not be allowed to block the flow of giving to the regular world service activities of the church or the result will be the creation of new and equally serious problems.

The national movement is being led by Bishop Edwin H. Hughes, retired, of Washington, D. C., who is supported by the Methodist Emergency Commission, composed of all the bishops and a representative number of prominent Methodist laymen and ministers from all the six jurisdictions of the church. Dr. Orien W. Fifer is executive secretary and Dr. Elmer T. Clark, formerly of Nashville, Tenn., is handling the promotion.

Rev. W. V. McLean, First church; Rev. W. A. Thornton, Epworth church; Rev. J. A. Cousins, Croton Avenue church; Rev. D. J. Blaseh, Mahoning Avenue church; Rev. E. D. Thompson, Savannah church; Rev. J. G. Cousins, Wesley church; Rev. H. L. Johnson, Simpson church; with committees from each of the above named churches, will promote the observance of Methodism's Day of Compassion in New Castle.

Two Towboats In River Collision

(International News Service)

DONORA, Pa., Feb. 6.—Two towboats owned by the Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corporation collided in the Monongahela river near Donora today, overturning one of them and causing injuries to two men.

The boats, each carrying a crew of about 23, were the "Clairton" and the "Allegheny." Witnesses said the "Allegheny" was going downstream pushing six barges loaded with coal and steel wire. The "Clairton" was moving upstream, pushing several empty barges.

At a bend in the river opposite the Donora Mine Works of the American Steel and Wire Company, near Webster, the lead barges of the two tows collided, it was reported.

News Briefs From City Hall

C. R. Balph, sealer of weights and inspector of measures today reported to city council that during the month of January he adjusted 38 weights and measures. He also reported that 116 persons who haul coal had received license plates at his office.

When council convened in the city building today the dog-catcher reported that he killed 40 dogs during January. During the past week or more the police have been flooded with calls for the dog-catcher's service.

Three hundred and two persons paid a fine of $1.00, for violating the parking meter ordinance of the city last month according to report made by Mayor Charles B. Mayne.

Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars today were granted permission by city council to use the third floor of the city building, March 2.

Youngsters who criticized the world of their elders should be happy now. They'll have a chance to rebuild it.

If our people are to be united, let's fix the laws so they won't be united in some states and legally separated in others.

Home Guard Band Idea Is Broached

Suggestion Is Made That Musical Organization Be Formed To Augment Unit

AWAIT RESPONSE FROM MUSICIANS

In connection with the formation of home guard units throughout the county, which would probably make use of the armory for drilling, a suggestion has been made by a local citizen, who had military training at college, that a band unit be formed to augment this proposed organization, which would furnish music for them during drill periods, and thus assist them in learning the case of young men below the draft age, who might later be inducted into the service.

The idea of forming a home guard organization, which is being proposed by the sponsor committee of the local national guard organization, now away at camp, is meeting with a splendid reaction among the citizens of the city.

While no need for its services might ever arise, it would be a splendid organization, which has formed for any emergency, which might arise in the course of time, and would be a fine adjunct for defense.

Any young man who plays a band instrument of any kind, and who would like to join a home guard band, is asked to present his name and the instrument played to The News, and in the event such an organization is formed, they will be communicated with later.

Scout Fete Changes Chest Board Plans

New Castle Community Chest directors will gather in the Y. W. C. A. for a regular board session on Tuesday, February 11, at 7:30 p. m., instead of Monday, February 10. The postponement will avoid a conflict with the 31st anniversary celebration of the Boy Scouts, a Chest agency, in the Cathedral Monday night.

LIGHT SNOW COVERING BENEFICIAL TO PINES

While taking off some of the snow that surrounded the new trees on Laurel boulevard, Owen Fox found that the needles of the pine were nice and green. The snow had loosened up and erased the oily smoke film, that pines accumulate from the air, this time of the year. Mr. Fox states that this snow acts on the pines, just as the warm rains do in the spring. Of course a heavy load of snow on the branches will cause them to break down, and to prevent this, most of the snow should be removed. A light covering is beneficial to these pines.

INCOME TAX IN A NUTSHELL

WHAT IS A "FAMILY"?

"In one household" is a phrase which confronts many taxpayers when they come to make out their income-tax returns. What do the regulations mean when they classify as the head of a family one who actually supports and maintains in one household a certain number of dependents?

Income-tax regulations are not straight and narrow in interpreting this phrase. It may mean the taxpayer's personal residence, an apartment, rooms in a boarding house, living quarters in a hotel, or such other place as she or he may occupy as a temporary or permanent residence.

It is not always necessary that a taxpayer and his dependents live under one roof the whole year round in order that he be allowed the exemption given the head of a family. If the common home is maintained, and the parent is away much of the time on business, or a child is away at school or on a visit, that is still "one household," and the exemption is allowed. It may be unavoidable for a parent to keep his dependent children with relatives, or in a boarding house, while he lives elsewhere—that constitutes "one household." But a person who, without necessity, gives the dependent of another a home, is not, under the income-tax regulations, the head of a family.

Another term that may be, in some cases, confusing or perplexing to many taxpayers is "living together," in the case of a husband and wife. Again the income-tax regulations are liberal in interpreting a phrase which, precisely defined, might do an injustice to a taxpayer. When a common home is maintained, and it becomes necessary for the husband to be away on business occasionally and temporarily, or the wife is absent on a visit, the $2,000 exemption still applies. The relation is not changed, neither is the exemption forfeited, if either husband or wife is unavoidably confined in a sanatorium. If, however, the husband continuously makes his home in one place, and the wife her home at another, they are not "living together" within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code.

Farm Security Loans Available

Farmers In Need Of Money To Carry Out Farm Operations Will Be Assisted

With preparedness in the air, farmers are urged by the Farm Security administration to prepare now for the coming crop year. This recommendation is addressed especially to farmers who will need Farm Security loans for equipment or goods necessary to carry on the farming operations, according to Clair E. George, F S A supervisor, Beaver Falls, Pa.

"These loans are available to operators of family-size farms who need financial help and are unable to obtain credit on reasonable terms from other sources," Mr. George stated. "To make sure that the money will actually be used to improve the situation of the borrowers, and as a guarantee of repayment, F. S. A. loans are always combined with help in working out farm and home management plans and other technical guidance."

Interested farmers may call at the Farm Security administration

Dr. Dafoe's Column On The Quintuplets And The Care Of Your Children

(Copyright, 1941, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

QUINTS
I have a letter before me from a man who says he is the father of five children, and he tells me that since the quintuplets are not getting a "normal" upbringing, he "just knows" that they must be "insufferable little brats."

Well, well, I'd like to see his children; I'd like to know what they are like. I'll bet it's just the old, old story—you know, it's always the neighbors who have the brats.

Every time I see children who are, as this man terms them, "insufferable little brats," I don't look with reproach upon the children. I look at the parents, because children are pretty much what their parents make them. If you find a child who is unmanageable, who has his own way or else—who is unruly, don't blame the poor youngster. He is just a product of his environment. It takes a couple of doting parents to make insufferable brats out of children.

True, the children may have certain unruly tendencies. If they are high-spirited, they probably will have those, but it isn't the children who develop the tendencies, it is the parents. They are the parents who take their children to school the first day and whisper in the teacher's ear: "You must handle little Gwendoline carefully or she will have hysterics," or "please remember, little Billy is awfully nervous and high strung."

"Brats" are the children who are brought up in a home that revolves around them; where they are the center of attention at all times. The quint is the center of a good deal of attention, and the nursery maid, in a way, revolves around them, because it was built for them. But, believe me, we try never to let the quint suspect this. I don't know what more we can do than that. Actually, I suppose every home revolves around the children in it. Nearly everything the mother does, is consciously, or subconsciously directed towards making things better for the children, dressing them better, giving them a better education, fitting them for better positions in life. This, I think is quite natural, and quite right. It is only when the parents make the mistake of letting their children see that they are the center of all this that we begin to have "brats."

Of course, I may be all off in my definition of the term "brat." I always, when I hear the term, visualize a child who naturally takes over the center of whatever is going on and insists on keeping it. Quite a lot of children go through this stage, but fortunately the majority of them outgrow it or get it knocked out of them by other children.

Fortunately, the quint hasn't gone through such a phase yet, and it is my earnest hope that they won't.

Contacts Family Through Red Cross

South New Castle Boro Man
Finds Family In Norway
Escaped War Casualties

Frank Johansen, Gilmore street, South New Castle, contacted the Lawrence county chapter of the American Red Cross asking for assistance in locating his relatives in Norway. The request was transmitted by the chapter to the National Red Cross and sent on to the International Red Cross. This was in July.

Word has just been received of the family's welfare. The encouraging report was given Mr. Johansen and he expressed his gratitude to the Lawrence county chapter of the American Red Cross for reuniting the family.

Charity Circus Opens February 17

The Townsmen Sponsoring
Circus To Benefit Under-Privileged Children

The Townsmen club of New Castle, sponsoring the Townsmen Charity Circus at the Cathedral, opening on Monday night, February 17, and continuing for six days and nights, will bring some of the stars of the circus world.

This event is being sponsored to raise funds for the Townsmen's under-privileged children which they send to camp during the summer months.

Everybody loves the circus as the children do so here is a fine chance to enjoy a real show and at the same time help some child to go to a summer camp.

Included in the circus show on the stage of the Cathedral will be death defying aerial acts, platform acts, consisting of comedy acrobats, dare-devils of the high wire. These aerial acts work at spectacular heights and will give you thrills and chills of unforgettable entertainment.

George Sillman and his orchestra has been contracted to play for this indoor circus, and according to the director of the circus the demand for tickets in the past week has been so great that it is expected to be a sell-out each evening.

The committee of the Townsmen club headed by its president, Chris Clarke, and Don Thompson is leaving nothing turned to make this Townsmen Charity Circus at the Cathedral a huge success.

Nazis Using Conquered Nations' Resources And Men

War Prisoners Used By Germany

Resources Of Conquered Nations Being Used To Prepare For British 'Blitz'

PRISONERS ALSO REBUILDING CITIES

By DAMON RUNYON JR.
International News Service Staff
Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Feb. 6. — Using the resources and labor of conquered European nations, Germany is turning out more submarines, ships and modern fighting planes instead of munitions, for the attempt to invade Great Britain government reports disclose today.

Officials said the shift in production indicated the Reich has run out of munitions for the war, but is lacking sufficient "first line" airplanes—meaning planes up-to-date in every respect. More subs are expected to be constructed in an attempt to cut off Britain's lifeline, the merchant marine.

Employ Army Of Prisoners
Commerce department reports from abroad stated the Germans are keeping their war industry running at a "high" level by using raw materials of occupied countries and employing hundreds of thousands of war prisoners and civilians.

As of September 1940—the latest available reports to the department—the Germans were using 1,000,000 French, Belgian and British prisoners in the occupied areas to meet a German shortage of labor. The reports said that 60 per cent of the war prisoners are employed in agriculture, the remainder in mines and industries.

Reconstruct Hamburg
The Germans, according to government officials, were using Dutch civilians and 700,000 Belgians in industries and agriculture, building up supplies for the expected Nazi Blitzkrieg. Danes also were said to be employed on projects such as reconstruction of British-bombed Hamburg, where 10,000 were reported at work.

"Industries in the occupied territories were being used to supplement German production of supplies for the armed forces," a department report added.
At the same time, it was reported that Great Britain is exerting every pressure on production facilities for the output of war supplies and on the effort to reduce civilian consumption of non-essentials.

The British have launched an active campaign, the department said, for enrollment and training of women in industries turning out war equipment.

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 6.—Harold Parker was elected president of the Ellwood City Rod and Gun club by the board of directors at a meeting held last evening. Mr. Parker is president of the Lawrence County Council and a past president of the local club.

Arrangements were discussed for the annual round-up to be held early in March. The event will be for all members and their families and interested sportsmen of the district. It will be in the form of a fish supper at the Elks club.

A grand prize will be awarded and shells will be awarded for points to be determined on various species. The winning team will be banqueted by the losers. Those wanting to participate are to register with Mr. Coptis.

Ford Visualizes Better United States Of Future Despite Present Chaos

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

WAYS, Ga., Feb. 6.—Henry Ford, the world's greatest authority on motor cars, predicted in an exclusive interview today that the automobile of five years from now will be more economical, better powered, easier on the eye and one-half its present weight.

The model T, which he made famous years ago, weighed 1,700 pounds. The average car today weighs about 2,800 pounds, Ford said.

That means the automobiles of 1946 will weigh only about 1,400 pounds and, according to Ford, the body will be made of plastic.

Ford visualizes a new, bigger and better United States twenty-five years from now in spite of the war clouds now hanging so menacingly over this country. He thinks America will emerge from the present world chaos in an improved condition "because we have the brains, the resources and the will to achieve."

Twenty years or so from now, Ford said, "everybody will be busy; transportation will be improved; mechanical farming will have eliminated drudgery in the agricultural field and our educational system will be better than ever before."

Four-lane highways will traverse the country, he said, connecting our principal cities, making for rapid and easy travel and permitting Americans to get acquainted with their wonderful country.

RIOTS IN NORWAY; AMERICANS HELD

Dr. Frank Nelson

As reports of rioting in western Norway between loyal Norwegians and followers of pro-Nazi Major Vidkun Quisling reached the United States, word also came that two American citizens are being held by German authorities in Oslo. Ivan Jacobsen, 21, of Morton, Wash., en route to Moscow to join the U. S. consulate staff there, and Dr. Frank Nelson, a temporary employee of the U. S. legation in Oslo, are the Americans in custody, according to the reports.

"Well, mebbe you is painless, sah," she said, "but I ain't."

Phillies Confident Of Leaving Cellar

Will Make Determined Bid For Higher Place In National League This Summer

Have Several Young Stars In Fold, Will Not Miss Higbe Much, Need More Speed

By PAT ROBINSON
(International News Service Staff Writer)
NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—One of the deadliest insults we ever heard was made today by Sam Breadon, owner of the Cardinals, when he offered to bet anybody even money that the Phillies would beat out the Phillies this year.

Horace Stoneham, owner of the Phillies, hit the ceiling when he heard it, but, strangely enough Doc Prothro, manager of the Phillies, was more indignant than Stoneham.

"The Phillies," said Doc earnestly, "have taken the welcome mat off the front doorstep. We are no longer wearing round heels. This year we are going places."

"Where?" chorused Doc's breathless listeners.

Out of Basement

"Out of the National League cellar!" chorched Doc triumphantly. "Understand, I'm not claiming the pennant, nor even a berth in the first division but I do think we'll give up our lease on the basement."

"You will recall that I went south the last two seasons without hope. I knew we were going nowhere and I frankly said as much. Now I'm telling you just as honestly that we have something this time."

What for instance?

"Well, for one thing, we'll have some of the best pitching in the league despite the loss of Kirby Higbe to the Dodgers. We have veterans like Hugh Mulcahy, Syl Egan, St. Johnson, Vito Tamulis, Bill Crouch and Walter Beck.

"But our main hopes rest in Tom Hughes, the best pitcher in the International league last year; Rube Melton, the best flinger in the American Association; Frank Horst, a lefty who was the Southeastern league's best bet, and John Pagan, who showed me plenty at the tail end of last season."

Trade Cooking

"My first and third basemen and my outfield are all right but we need more speed. I must develop a second base combination."

Doc refused to say whether the Phillies are going to make a three-way trade which would bring Second Baseman Billy Herman from the Cubs in exchange for Hugh Mulcahy and which would then send Herman to the Dodgers in trade for Pete Coscarart and several other players.

Whether Doc admits it or not, we happen to know that this trade is on the fire and may be sufficiently cooked to offer to the public before the chefs go south.

"That Breadon has a lot of nerve," Doc reverted to the insult. "Now if he had offered to bet that his Cardinals could beat out the Phillies, I wouldn't have felt bad. But offering to bet that the Giants will beat the Phillies is an insult—to the Phillies."

New Castle Indies Defeat Aliquippa

It was the 10th win of the season for the Indies against three defeats. The Indies are coached by Fl (Davey Banks) Augustine.

The summary:

Sell Out Crowd Sees Mat Show

More Than 2,500 Fans Gather In The Arena To See "The Angel"

Professional wrestling returned to New Castle with a bang Wednesday night.

More than 2,500 spectators, the largest sports gallery to ever file into The Arena, assembled to find out if it's true what they say about that noted athlete—"The Angel."

It's true.

To get down to the business of the evening, "The Angel" appeared in the feature go, pitted against Lord Albert Mills, 6 feet 4 inch 235-pound ex-British amateur champion. "The Angel" doesn't move around like a flyweight but manages to give a creditable account of himself.

After 2 minutes and 27 seconds of the fourth heat, the freak applied the bear hug on the chunky Mills. After shaking the Londoner a bit, "The Angel" got a good crotch hold on his foe and heaved him onto the canvas. That was the end.

In the semi-final, "Gus" Sonnenberg of Boston scored a decided hit in his match with Pete Beltran of Lithuania. The gallery soon learned why Sonnenberg was world champion back in 1929. He moves around with surprising agility for a man of 40, who weighs 216.

"Gus" emerged victorious in the fourth chapter of what was carded to go eight stanzas. A flying tackle and a body press ended this number. Beltran weighed 222.

Howard Burnell, the ex-Oklahoma A. & M. matman who wore the National collegiate championship belt in 1937, matched wits with Tom Casey of Ireland in the opener. The pair put on a crowd pleasing performance. In the fifth chapter, Burnell was forced to give up due to an injured back. The bout ended after one minute and a half of the fifth.

Thus, wrestling returned to New Castle. The huge gallery went away pleased. All bouts were staged under the Australian Round System.

Tommy Jones and Phil G. Greer served as judges. Humbert Fazzone was timer, Charles "Bugs" Walther was announcer and Charlie Dickert of Pittsburgh was the referee.

Old Furnace Five Has Tough Schedule

The Old Furnace Five will be busy the next few days, to be exact they will play eight games the next 13 days, it was announced by Coach John Rubels.

Saturday the New Castle Rangers will be met at senior high. Sunday the Trucon Steel team of Youngstown will be met at The Arena. Thursday, February 13, the Polish National Alliance team of McDonald, O. will be met at the McDonald, O. floor, Sunday, February 16, the Holy Trinity team of Struthers will be met at The Arena. Monday, February 17, the Himrod club will be met at Youngstown. Tuesday, February 18, the St. Michaels church team will be met at the Falcon hall. Indians Turn Back New Wilmington, 31-12, To Seize Top Berth Wampum High's determined basketball team today leads the Section 20 parade.

Potting 22 markers in the second half, Coach L. B. Hennon's proteges vanquished New Wilmington, 31-12, to push the "Greyhounds" from the top berth Wednesday night on Shelby floor, Ellwood City.

The schoolboys were even stephen as the opening stanza ended 5-5. At halftime the Indians sported a 9-8 edge. Noted for second half rallies, Wampum staged its customary "blitz". While the opponents couldn't annex as much as a foul, Wampum cashed in with seven points to lead 16-8 as the third period ended.

The Indians continued the pace, pouring in 15 more points compared to four for the foes in the fourth. Craine, Hervatine and Bennett supplied the scoring attack for the new league leaders. Pearson was New Wilmington's best bet.

SPORTS WORLD RAMBLINGS

A lot of sports odds and ends tacked together to make a column:

The Pittsburgh Pirates' roster and training schedule has reached this week. Our Bucs play their first night home game on June 18, entertaining piker-faced Bill Terry and his Giants. The coming campaign marks the 55th consecutive season for the Pirates in the National league. The list of players doesn't seem complete without the name of that old stalwart—Paul Waner. The Bucs will train in San Bernardino, Calif.

Baseball's two highest paid pitchers are a soft touch for Dominic DiMaggio, the Red Sox fly chaser. He thumps Bobby Feller's deliveries in monotonous tempo. "Bobo" Newsom, who trails Feller in the money earning department, not to mention the pegging phase, says there are two too many DiMaggios in the American league. He points out that in 1940 Dom blasted only two homers on the road—both of them at his expense!

Contrary to belief, there is still room for baseball clubs in the United States. Last census figures show that there are 24 cities with a population of 100,000 or more which do not have a representative

Crucial Games In Section 20 Friday

Wampum Fires Away Against Shenango; Mt. Jackson Plays At Union High

Section 20 enemies resume their mad dash for honors Friday night. Three triple-star encounters grace the local sports calendar. Since the standings resemble a jigsaw puzzle, literally speaking, each battle is of a crucial nature.

At East New Castle, Wampum and Shenango do battle in one of the feature setoffs. The Indians, one of the hottest clubs in the loop, face a stubborn Shenango outfit which still entertains hopes of nabbing the championship.

New Wilmington High journeys to East Brook for another important fracas with the Brook quintet. A tough aggregation to whip at home, East Brook will be out to avenge some of those setbacks administered by the "Greyhounds" in the past seasons.

Mt. Jackson's clash at Union rounds out the card. The Mounties are riding high as a result of several surprise victories. The Jackson flippers are still contenders for the bauble and are determined to remain in that category by pouncing the Scotland Laners.

Bessemer, which remained in the race by topping New Wilmington last Tuesday night, enjoys a rest.

LEAHY IS NOT CANDIDATE FOR NOTRE DAME JOB

(International News Service)
BOSTON, Feb. 6.—Frank Leahy, 32-year-old head football coach of Boston College, who has signed a new five-year contract, will not return to his alma mater, Notre Dame despite reports that he might succeed Elmer Layden.

Leahy's told close friends that he does not consider himself up to the standard required at Notre Dame because of his short experience. He has spent two years at Boston College coming from Fordham University where he was assistant to Jimmy Crowley.

The 1940 football season was the first in twenty years in which Indiana University's team scored on all opponents.

SOOSE AND VIGH To Fight Friday

Former Penn State Champion Is Favored To Defeat Opponent In Garden Bout

By PAT ROBINSON
(International News Service Staff Writer)
NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—First basemen seem to do all right for themselves when they turn their hand to other things.

Lou Gehrig, No. 1 man of the fraternity, is making good in a big way as a parade commissioner. Haverstraw, N. Y., turned out a pretty fair first sacker who later made good as postmaster general of the United States. His name was and is Jim Farley.

Out in Iowa and later in California there was a good shortstop who also was a handy man around the initial sack who later became well known as president of the United States. Herbert Hoover is the name.

And—to step as quickly as possible from the sublime to the ridiculous—another pair of first basemen are making good in the ring. They are Billy Soose and Ernie Vigh who are in Madison Square Garden tomorrow night for the right to meet Ken Overlin for the middleweight title.

Like Baseball Best

Strangely enough, like that other well known first basemen, Joe Louis, both Ernie and Billy would rather talk baseball than boxing. And only today Ernie used a baseball term to describe his rival. He called Soose "a hit and run" guy and that aptly describe the Penn State boxer.

Soose likes to shoot a straight left and then step away, hence the hit and run description. Ernie likes to slug a la Babe Ruth or Hank Greenberg, and like all sluggers, he has little respect for the fancy Dans of any game.

Although both are first basemen; both of Hungarian descent, and both pleasant and soft spoken, they have nothing in common in their method of waging ring warfare.

Soose is strictly a boxer; Ernie is a puncher.

Ernie is a miniature Tarzan who developed his tremendous arm and back muscles tossing heavy baskets of vegetables onto a farm truck. How hard Ernie socks may best be gauged from his record which shows a string of 36 kayo victories in 52 fights.

Soose is a 9 to 5 choice.

Dempsey And Louis May Trade Punches

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 6.—Jack Dempsey and Joe Louis were invited today to trade punches for three rounds.

The invitation came from Jimmy Dougherty, Leipsville fight promoter, who believes Dempsey would be willing to risk his neck for three two-minute rounds. "If Louis is as great as he thinks he is, he should be anxious to pick up some easy money," opined Dougherty.

Church League Games Friday

There are three more games listed for the New Castle church basketball league for Friday night. The first game will start at 7:45 o'clock.

The games will be played as follows:

Second U. P. vs Epworth.
First Presbyterians vs St. Marys.
First Methodists vs St. George Greeks.

DAILY DOZEN

(From the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania)

"Friend or enemy" is one of those old Joe Miller wisecracks. Enemies are old, first described in the 14th century, B. C.

This method of administering treatment was known long before then.

The diet of West Coast natives in Africa calls for purgatives.

The most popular imported item there is the enema syringe.

The Aztec Indians and those of North America practiced the enema.

A hollow reed or a perforated horn or a gourd was used.

Many of these appliances were beautifully carved works of art.

Before the rubber syringe, people used animal bladders and a reed.

Such bladders and leather bags were used in Europe as late as 1600.

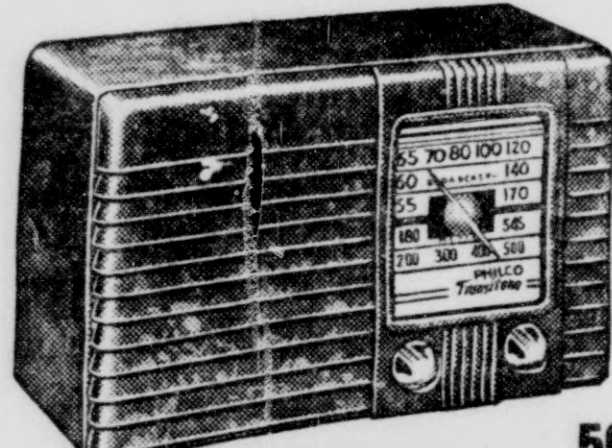

Children, particularly, have been subjected to enemas.

Universally, children object to swallowing bitter purgatives.

Trivial operation: One done on the other fellow. Major operation: The same job done on you.

In re: Petition to satisfy mortgage on property of Margaret J. Slater.

In the Court of Common Pleas of Lawrence County, Pennsylvania. No. 19 March Term, 1941. M. D.

Legal Notice. To the Legal Representatives of George Davis and Kate Davis, or their heirs, assigns, executors, administrators, or whomever may be the holder of the Mortgage Hereinafter Mentioned.

Take notice that on January 7, 1941, A. C. Shoaf, Administrator of Margaret J. Slater, presented his petition averring that said decedent was the owner of a certain lot of land situate in the Second Ward, of the City of New Castle, County of Lawrence and State of Pennsylvania, designated as No. 9 in Section "C" of Neshaunock Heights, Second Ward, of the City of New Castle, Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows:

Commencing at a point on the South line of Leasure Avenue distant 400 feet East from the East line of Highland Avenue and running thence by the South line of Leasure Avenue 50 feet to a point; thence South by lot No. 10, owned by—C. Boyd, 125 feet to a point; thence West by land of P. J. Watson 50 feet to a point; thence North by lot No. 8 of—Ray, 175 feet to a point; thence by the south line of Leasure Avenue, the place of beginning.

That an unsatisfied mortgage upon said premises, remains of record in the Recorder's Office of Lawrence County, in Mortgage Book Vol. 74, page 189, given by C. Boyd to J. A. James A. Stevenson, d. Edwin Stevenson, dated May 23, 1907, for the sum of $414.00, and that title to said mortgage subsequently passed to George Davis and Kate Davis and that said mortgage has been paid but not satisfied of record within six months after payment.

Whereupon the Court ordered that notice of said facts be served by the Sheriff on said George Davis and Kate Davis or their legal representatives, or whomever may be the holder of said mortgage, if it be found in the County, and if not then to give public notice by advertisement, requiring them to appear in said Court at next term and show cause why the proper Decree should not be granted and said mortgage satisfied of record.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—The stock market developed some irregularity today after a mild advance at the start. The individual star was American Telephone which advanced over a point.

Utilities turned easy after an early gain but other steels were slightly higher. Both Chrysler and General Motors advanced fractions. Transport shares were backward in an otherwise firm market for aviation shares.

Kennecott was sluggish as other coppers scored small gains. Texas Corp. was easy in the oils. Atchison started higher but eased later. Southern Pacific and N. Y. Central also were down. Other rails improved.

Prices were unchanged to slightly higher. Mail orders gained and rubbers were steady.

Compute Odds Against Making Oil, Gas Strike

Penn State Students Learn How To Be Successful "Wild-Catters"

(International News Service)

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Feb. 6.—The old adage says "petroleum is where you find it," but seniors enrolled in petroleum and natural gas engineering at the Pennsylvania State college are being taught how to compute the odds in favor of a successful find.

By applying all of the known scientific methods of prospecting, the odds can be as high as one to one, says Dr. Sylvain J. Pirson, associate professor in the school of mineral industries. However, it is not often possible to do this, he adds, because it involves expensive electrical, magnetic, gravimetric, seismic, radioactive, geothermal and geochemical measurements.

"At least some of these measurements must be used, nevertheless, if the so-called wild-catter is to stay in business," he tells his class. "After computing the odds with the best methods at hand, the prospector can then follow a set mathematical formula devised by W. A. Whitworth in 1870, which weighs these odds against the prospective yield and the amount of the prospector's capital."

Seabiscuit Will Be Honored Today

(International News Service)

SANTA ANITA PARK, Calif., Feb. 6.—Old pappy Seabiscuit—which has been toasted with enough vintage wine during his life span to launch a triple-deck destroyer—reaches the anti-climax of testimonials today at Santa Anita.

The mighty, barrel-chested bay, world's leading thoroughbred money winner and hero of innumerable and unforgettable turf battles, will be guest of honor for "Seabiscuit day."

Highlighting the festivities will be the unveiling of a life-size statue of the Biscuit, modeled in bronze by the cowboy sculptor, Tex Wheeler.

The feature race of the program is the "Seabiscuit Handicap" and the 8-year-old champ himself, with his inseparable jockey, "Red" Pollard, will lead the post parade. And he may even jog through the stretch to show the fans he can still get around despite his being on temporary leave of absence from the life of a country squire.

A large crowd of Seabiscuit admirers is expected to cheer the champ in his last appearance before the public.

When your bowels and kidneys fail to perform their work correctly your system cannot throw off the waste materials and digestion often becomes deranged—you lose energy and activity. Perhaps before you realize it you're losing your appeal and getting objectionably fat.

Take one-half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of water every morning half an hour before breakfast, cut out pastry, fatty meats—and go light on white bread, potatoes, butter and cream. In three weeks get on the scales and see how many pounds of fat have vanished; notice also that you have gained in energy—your skin seems clearer and eyes brighter—you feel younger in body and keener in mind.

Get a bottle of Kruschen Salts (a famous English formula) plain or new effervescent—sprinkling—pleasant, at Eckerd's Drug Store and leading druggists everywhere; lasts 4 weeks and is inexpensive. Money back if not fully satisfied.

The Christian Attitude Toward Possessions

Highlights On The Sunday School Lesson

The Golden Text

"Ye cannot serve God and mammon."—Luke 16:13.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for Feb. 9 is Luke 16, the Golden Text being Luke 16:13, "Ye cannot serve God and mammon.")

Many people in the world think that money is more important than anything else. They scheme to get it, and too often are not too particular how they accomplish their ends. They cheat those for whom they are working; and even members of their own families, to get a few more dollars.

No one who ever lived on earth ever cared less for money than our Lord Jesus Christ. He advised the rich young man to sell all that he had and give it to the poor, and to follow in His footsteps, going about from place to place preaching, teaching and healing, depending on the gratitude and hospitality of the people to whom he preached for his sustenance.

His emphasis is all on honesty, truthfulness, unselfishness, loyalty and love. In the lesson today, Jesus first tells a parable of a man who was employed as steward by a rich man, who, apparently, went away leaving this steward in charge of his business. When he returned he heard that the man had wasted his goods—been careless of his trust. He called the man to him and told him to give an account of his stewardship, as he would no longer be in his employ.

The steward did not know what to do. Having lived an easy life with this man, he felt he could not do rough work for his living, and he was ashamed to beg. So he called the men who were in the debt of his former master, and asked the first one how much he owed the man. "An hundred measures of oil," the man answered. And the steward said, "Take thy bill and sit down quickly and write fifty." He did the same with all the other debtors, cutting their bills in half, thus making them his friends so that they would receive him in their homes.

Jesus said: "He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much; and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much."

Cannot Serve Two Masters

"No servant can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other; or else he will hold to one and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon."

Money is important in the modern world, for we pay our way with it, buy what we need, and provide for our families with it. But it is only a medium of exchange. It never is or can be as important as to do what God wants us to. If we are generous, open-hearted, charitable, with our money it can do us no harm. We can be God's children and use our money for good. But if we begin to hoard it, to scheme to get it, and to spend it only for our own selfish ends, it will only constitute a threat to our present and future happiness, in this world and hereafter.

The Pharisees, who loved money heard Jesus tell this parable and they sneered at His words. Jesus, knowing what was in their hearts, told them that "that which is esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God," and proceeded to tell them of some abuses in the customs of the times that they winked at, especially the divorce laws.

Jesus told them the story of the "certain rich man" who "was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day."

And there was also a certain beggar named Lazarus, who, in his rags, and with his body full of sores, was laid at the rich man's door, hoping to eat the crumbs that fell from his table to sustain life. The dogs were his only friends.

Both Men Died

It came to pass, said Jesus, that both died. Lazarus was taken to "Abraham's bosom"; in heaven; but the rich man found himself in Hades where he was tortured with flames and thirst. Seeing the poor man happy, he asked Abraham if Lazarus could not be sent down to him with a few drops of cool water to wet his scorched tongue. Abraham explained that nothing could be done. The rich man had had his good things while he was still on earth; but Lazarus had had nothing but suffering while alive, so now he had his comforts in the after life.

Then the rich man, called "Dives," which means rich, asked if Lazarus could not be sent to tell the rich man's brothers of what was in store for them when they died if they continued to live lives of selfish ease on earth. He said they might believe, Abraham, however, said it could not be done. If they would not listen to God's prophets, who were with them on earth, they would not listen to one returned from the dead.

This ends our lesson for today. Our Golden Text is "Ye cannot serve God and mammon," so now, today, we should start to dedicate ourselves anew to the service of God, putting money and other things of this world in their proper places.

But if two great men have opposite ideas concerning America's present duty, or of them got labeled wrong.
